

Together

an online meetup to share, explore, and grow

STARTS MARCH 2

This group is for adults under 40ish who are curious about faith or spirituality and care about social justice and inclusion. It is specifically for those who would like to be a part of a community that explores these things together and seeks to make a difference in the world. Furthermore, it is a safe space for those who have felt excluded or even hurt by the Church in the past.

Although affiliated with Roland Park Presbyterian Church, attendees do not have to be Presbyterian or religious at all. This group is LGBTQ+ welcoming and affirming and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, gender expression, national origin, disability, marital status, or military status.

Using Ronald J. Allen's book, A Faith of Your Own: Naming What You Really Believe as a framework, this online meetup will take place on Zoom, Wednesday nights at 7 p.m. for eight weeks. Each session will last an hour. After eight weeks, the group's next step will be discussed.
